Conditions of Sale.

- 1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot to be immediately put up again and resold.
- 2.—The biddings to be regulated at the discretion of the auctioneers; and no bidding to be withdrawn when once made and announced by the auctioneers.
- 3.—Each purchaser shall give his name and place of abode, and immediately after the sale, make payment of the whole of his purchase money to the auctioneers.
- 4.—The auctioneers reserve to themselves the right of selling in such order as they may think most desirable, and of declining to receive a bidding from any person they may consider objectionable.
- 5.—The various lots are sold subject to all faults and errors whatsoever (if any), and also all mis-descriptions, and must be at the risk of the purchaser at the fall of the hammer; and no abatement or allowance will be made for any error, omission, or loss in respect of any lot.
- 6.—To avoid mistakes, no lot must be taken away until delivered by a duly authorized person, nor without a delivery ticket from the auctioneers or their agent.
- 7.—This Catalogue is issued subject to any errata, omission, or alteration that may be made therein prior to the lot being offered for sale, and the auctioneers reserve the right of making the same, and no allowance will be made to any person for any such errata, alteration, or omission.
- 8.—The whole of the lots, with the exception of the hay, straw, potatoes, and mangold, to be stored at the purchaser's expense before 12 o'clock noon the day after the Sale.

LASTLY.—On failing to comply with these conditions, the lots unpaid for or unclaimed may be resold either by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

The above Conditions must be in every respect strictly complied with.

HEWETT & LEE,
Auctioneers.

N.B.—Special Conditions as to the sale of the Hay, Straw, Mangold, and Potatoes, will be produced at the time of Sale.
