

ENGLAND'S MOST POPULAR CAR
By RHODA LEE
See Page 11

DAILY SKETCH

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1936. Head Office: 200, Gray's Inn-road, W.C.1. Phone: Museum 3341.

FELIX IN TROUSER
The famous eyes and legs
Don't miss this
See the new
ILLUSTRATED
SUNDAY
HERALD

HISTORICAL PAGEANT AT WOKING: DAILY SKETCH PHOTOGRAPHS

A natural elevation in the ground formed a grand stand.

Father Time (Mr. P. Lickfeld) presents the torch to the Spirit of Youth (Miss G. Freemantle).

Mr. M. D. Hay as William the Conqueror and Mrs. Clifford rollope as Queen Edith.

Watching the departure of her deliverer, St. George, after he had killed the dragon.

A trio of bonnie children who took part.

A charming Tudor scene "in the skirts of the forest."

Under delightful conditions and in charming surroundings an historical pageant and modern fair was held at Pyrford Court, Woking, yesterday in aid of St. George's Home for officers' children.

Printed and Published by The DAILY SKETCH and SUNDAY HERALD, Ltd., 200, Gray's Inn-road, London, W.C.1, and Wily Gore, Manchester.—THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1936.

HERITAGE WALKS ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

GREAT SERIAL
GRAND TRIPLE
"CHAIN"
BEGIN IT TO-DAY

THE DAILY MIRROR, Thursday, May 27, 1936.

"Crocodile" Tears When Auntie Leaves Home. See page 11

£5,000
RACING CONTEST
COUPON TO-MORROW

The Daily Mirror

THE DAILY PICTURE PAPER WITH THE LARGEST NET SALE

HISTORICAL SIX-ACT "PAGEANT OF ST. GEORGE" PRODUCED AT WOKING FAIR

George (Capt. Piddley) after slaying the dragon (F. Shaw and G. G. Hunt).

The Princess (I. Gibb) sadly contemplating the departure of St. George.

Lady Betty Balfour (centre), chairman of the committee, with Lord Onslow.

Performers, including the dog, waiting their turn to appear.

One of the scenes in the pageant set in beautiful natural surroundings. Little plays, four of which marked great stages in the making of England. Further performances will be given on Saturday at Pirbright.—(Daily Mirror photographs.)

Printed and Published by THE DAILY MIRROR NEWSPAPERS, LTD., at 23-25, Boulevard Street, London, E.C.4.—Thursday, May 27, 1936. Telephone Central 2445.

HERITAGE WALKS ARCHIVE DOCUMENT