1973

During this year, up to our Birthday on 23rd October, 1973, we are celebrating our 50th year.

It has been a long and arduous venture from those gallant pioneer days, under Miss Maris (Mrs. Kingswell) in the three huts left over from the First World War, to the school of today with 700 pupils and 50 staff in lovely buildings with ample facilities. All the way we have had the support and companionship of countless friends, pupils, parents, staff, governors, administrators.

We hope that the activities planned for the year will bring us all closer together and encourage many to renew acquaintance with the school, perhaps for the last time, as the suggested plan is for us to close in 1975.

V. L. HILL,
Headmistress 1946 - 73
